

I am having a difficult time understanding how, what is essentially a public domain item, traffic and weather can be copyrighted to limit who may broadcast such information. I travel extensively and the quality offered by NAB members is often poor and untimely. Not only is this an inconvenience, it is a safety hazard to me as well.

I am very much against limiting competition and will vote my dissatisfaction if the ability to listen to traffic and weather on XM satellite radio is limited or restricted.